COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, 12TH MAY 1877.

CONSOLS yesterday advanced from 93⅜ to 94, at which they are still quoted to-day, and French Rentes in the interval have risen from 102⅝ to 103, both indications of increased confidence, which there is nothing to account for in the political advices. The movement is all the stranger from its being accompanied by indications of an exactly opposite character in produce; Cotton being depressed, while Wheat is dearer. Possibly the mere fact of no change having taken place in the position has been sufficient to induce greater firmness again on the Stock Exchange, in the belief that the longer England keeps out of the struggle the less likely is she to be involved ultimately. If this is the form of reasoning which has led to the advance—and really there seems no other way of accounting for it—nothing could be more fallacious. The English Government certainly seem disposed to avoid active steps as long as possible, but that they can continue to do so after the conflict assumes a decisive character, is very improbable.

The Liverpool Cotton Market on Friday closed in favour of buyers, sales 7,000 bales, prices unchanged; and to-day's market has been flat, sales 5,000 bales, Reuter's spot quotations showing a decline of 1/16 per lb. in G. F. Ginned Broach, G. F. Ginned Dharwar, G. F. Hinganghaut and Mid. Orleans. Respecting arrivals Reuter gives no information, but private messages report nothing doing, buyers being quite out of the market. The continued depression is accounted for by the enormous available supplies, which are still on the increase, and with the Lancashire holiday season coming on, there is little hope of an immediate improvement unless brought about by political matters.

The total visible supply of Cotton for all Europe on the 11th instant shows the following comparisons with the two previous years:—

PIECE GOODS in Manchester yesterday were dull, but quotations were unchanged. In the London General Produce Markets, Coffee was said to be irregular, but the only change in prices was a decline of 1s. per cwt. in G. O. native. Cocoanut Oil continues unchanged, as also Linseed, but Ferozepore Rapeseed has declined 2s. and Calcutta 1s. per quarter.

A withdrawal of £75,000 from the Bank of England for Germany is advised. Bar Silver is still quoted at 54½d. per oz.

STERLING EXCHANGE to day has been steady at about yesterday's rates, but there has again been only a very small business done. Bank Bills are in most limited request, while Private Bills are almost equally scarce. We are entirely guided for the time being, however, by Calcutta, where the extreme tightness of money continues to support rates, and seems likely to do so yet awhile, but directly signs of ease are apparent, we may look for a rapid reaction, everything on this side being strongly in favour of greater ease. We quote:—

Bank Bills, on demand.....	1s. 9d.	per Rupee
"	6 months' sight...1s. 9¼d.	"
Credits,	3 months' sight...1s. 9¼d.	"
Documents,	3 months' sight...1s. 15-16 to 1s.	"

On Calcutta demand drafts may be quoted at ½ per cent. premium, 60 days' sight at 1¼ per cent. discount.

GOVERNMENT PAPER is dull and unchanged, say, Four, and Fours-and-a-half Rs. 96½, Fives-and-a-half Rs. 101 to Rs. 10 ¼.

The SHARE MARKET continues quiet with few changes in values. Bank of Bombays are steady at 38½ per cent. premium, Colaba Land Co.'s shares have advanced Rs. 45 Mofussil Press are Rs. 5 higher. In Spinning and Weaving Companies, Alliance have declined Rs. 25, while Khandesh have advanced Rs. 15, Great Easterns and Manockjee Petits Rs. 5 per share. Other Companies are unaltered.

COTTON is quiet in the extreme, so far as export business is concerned, and the market may be called dull at yesterday's rates. The local Spinning Companies, however, are now beginning to buy very steadily against their monsoon requirements, and this keeps up prices of half-pressed cotton at a comparatively high level. Yesterday's receipts were 9,510 bales. We quote:—

Good Omra.	Ready..... Rs. 177 per candy f. p.
F. G. F. do.	" 172	" "
G. F. do.	" 168	" "
Good Dhollera	" 178	" "
F. G. F. do.	" 172	" "
G. F. do.	" 168	" "

LINSEED is in active request at higher prices, to-day's quotation being Rs. 6-9 to Rs. 6 10 per cwt. Rapeseed is quiet at Rs. 6-14 to Rs. 6-15 per cwt.

WHEAT continues very scarce and suitable parcels for export are immediately picked up at very high prices. We now quote White Pessy Rs. 39, mixed Rs. 37, Red Rs. 35 per candy.

FREIGHTS are dull almost to depression. By steamer for Liverpool the nominal quotation is £1-17-6, but relets have been done at £1-16 3. fron sailing ships are quoted at £2 to £2-1 3 per ton.

PIECE GOODS have been in slightly better request, but the enormous supplies available prevent any improvement in prices. Indentors also show more disposition to send home orders, but so far at very reduced limits.

THE tour of office of Brigade Majors of the Indian Army is extended from three years to five.

THE Queen's Birth-day levée will be held at Peterhoff, Simla, on Saturday, the 2nd June, at 11 o'clock.

THE Government of Bombay has appointed Mr. G. A. Barnett a member of the Municipal Corporation of this city, in the room of the Hon. D. Graham.

A CORRESPONDENT writing from Kistnagheri (Salem District), to the Madras Mail, states, that the native females of the district are offering their children for sale at Rs. 4 each!

MILITARY Officers, especially seniors in the service, are looking out anxiously for the new Promotion and Retirement scheme, which are likely to be out about the end of this month.

THE movements of the Persian troops have formed the subject of communications between the British Minister at Teheran and the Shah's Foreign Minister, who has formally disavowed any hostile intentions towards Turkey.

A FACT not generally known supplies a suggestive commentary on the present attitude of Persia with regard to Baghdad. Not long ago she advanced claims to the possession of Khelat. The claim was referred to the English Foreign Office and peremptorily rejected.

THE exceptionally mild weather that is now enjoyed in Lahore seems to prevail generally in Upper India. A correspondent, writing from Pindi, says the thermometer stands at 73 deg. and no punkahs are thought of, and somewhat similar accounts come from Jubbulpore.

MR. T. W. ARMSTRONG, Secretary to the Chief Commissioner in the Public Works Department, and Chief Engineer, Central Provinces, died at sea, of heat apoplexy, on the 1st instant, four days after leaving Bombay harbour. Mr. Armstrong was proceeding to Australia on leave.

WE understand that His Highness Maharaja Holkar has recognized the exertions of Mr. Vishnu Chimnajee Karve, the compiler of the "Treatise on Telegraphy" in Marathi, by ordering 50 copies of the book to be purchased, besides a present of one hundred rupees. This is very liberal and encouraging.

WE hear that the reported disturbances in Gilzit are not of so serious a nature as was at first stated, and as a military force has been ordered by the Maharaja of Casbmere to the locality of the disturbance, it is expected that the news of its advance will alone have the effect of restoring peace and quietness.

A FEW weeks ago some villagers on the Peshawur frontier resisted a party of police who were sent to arrest an outlaw. We now learn that the villagers have come in of their own accord, and paid to the Deputy Commissioner of Peshawur the fine imposed and have given securities for their future good behaviour.

MR. KNAPP, Assistant Engineer, Thongzai, is to be tried for causing hurt to a Police peon by firing a revolver at him. The case will be tried by Captain H. Spearman, Deputy Commissioner of Rangoon, and the Government Advocate, Mr. F. E. Cunningham, Barrister-at-Law, has been instructed to conduct the prosecution.

A CASE of a very unusual character is now on Mr. Justice Kennedy's board, Calcutta High Court, viz., a suit by a Hindoo lady suing her husband for the restitution of conjugal rights and damages for certain jewels of hers, which he has taken possession of. It is likely that the case will throw considerable light on the inner life of a Hindoo family.

CAPTAIN MORICE, R. N., (who is in the service of the Khedive,) has been appointed by His Highness to the command of an expedition for the suppression of the slave trade in the Red Sea. No interference will, of course, in any way take place with British steamers, or with vessels under the British flag, if found beyond Egyptian waters. Captain Mackillop would have had command of this expedition but for illness which has for a time invalided him.

IT is said at home that the task of completing Kaye's "Sepoy War" has been entrusted to Captain L. J. Trotter late of the 20th Bengal Fusiliers, whose previous essays in Indian History have met with kindly recognition from the reading public. In his sequel to Thornton's History he has already gone over the same ground as Kaye, and his own career as a soldier covers the period treated of in Kaye's interesting volumes.

A SERJEANT and his family narrowly escaped being killed at Taraghur Sanitarium in a storm on Sunday night, the 6 h inst. The wind entered the house, and finding no exit made one by lifting up the stone roof. The family had just time to got outside the door when they heard the crash of falling stone on the floor. When light was procured one of the beds just quitted was found completely smashed up and covered with more than a hundred weight of stone.

A HORRIBLE murder occurred in a village near the Belgachi Thanah, Bengal on the 24th ultimo. A Brahmin, whom his parents and other relations were absent, suddenly murdered all of them one after another. His victims were alt ether six in number. He then set fire to his house, and went to the Police Station and related what he had done. The Police immediately arrested him, and went to his house where they found it on fire. With the aid of the villagers they were able to extinguish the fire, and found the six murdered persons partly burnt.

BABU HARI MOHAN GANGULY, the gymnastic teacher of Dacca, has filed a suit for damages, laid at Rs. 600, against Mr. Stack, a Professor of the College. The particulars of the case, as given by a contemporary, are as follows:—"Mr. Archibald, another Professor of the College, left his bycycle one evening in the College compound which the gymnastic teacher slightly damaged. Mr. Archibald politely asked him to have it repaired, which he thankfully consented to. While the conversation between Mr. Archibald and Babu Hari Mohan was going on, Mr. Stack officially interfered, and among other abusive terms called Babu Hari Mohan a damned cheat, a dunce, &c."

MISS MARY DONELLY, a young lady scarcely 17 years old, was convicted on Wednesday last by Mr. Pellew, Magistrate of Howrah, of having used a defaced postage stamp of the value of two pice, and was sentenced to rigorous imprisonment for two months. It seems that there was no direct evidence that she had affixed the stamp to the letter, the defence being that she had entrusted the letter to a servant to post, which was supported by evidence. Miss Donelly is, as we have said, scarcely seventeen years old, and left the convent at Allahabad, where she was brought up, only last December. The Magistrate not only took up the prosecution himself, but appeared as a witness in the case before himself, taking and recording his own deposition. We shall, no doubt, hear more of this apparently unjust condemnation.

THERE was a very large meeting held at Lucknow, at the instance of Munshi Peary Lall, at the Kaiserbagh Baraduri, to forward the movement for curtailing native marriage expenses. About 1,000 Hindu and Mussulman gentlemen of all ranks attended, and showed deep interest. Colonel Reid, the Commissioner, occupied the chair, and explained to the meeting that the Government was ever ready to co-operate in any movement which might tend to the prosperity of its subjects and better their social and moral conditions, and that the present being one which is an incentive to female infanticide which the Government so closely watches, it will give any desirable aid. He also expressed the warm interest which the Honourable Sir Geroge Couper, Baronet, Lieutenant-Governor of the N. W. P. and Oudh, takes in such proceedings, and told the meeting that His Honor would be highly delighted to hear of its success.

SOME of our Aryan brethren, who are officers in the Native Army, bear curious and unintelligible names in the new Madras Army List. We (Mail) are no advocates of the Hunterian system of spelling, or Romanizing, or whatever it is called; and we suppose that native officers are not likely to study the Army List much, so it makes little difference to them how their names appear in a foreign dress. But when we see such a name as "Mahomed Gallop" borne by a subadar of one of our distinguished regiments, we cannot help thinking that our military authorities have been going rather too fast, and that it would have been as well to defer entering native officers' names in the Army List, until some arrangements had been made for adding a course of orthography and pronunciation of Mussulman and Hindoo names to the programme of garrison instruction.

A MERCHANT arrived in Madras from Bangalore last week with a quantity of silver, which he had converted into sovereigns. Two sharpers who had come to the knowledge of what the man had with him, were very assiduous in their attentions to him during his stay there; and when he finally left Madras, they also took tickets and left the Central Station in company with him. There were other passengers in the carriage in which they were travelling, but these left in the course of the journey, and by the time the train reached Jollarpett the man had been set upon, murdered, and despoiled of all the valuables he possessed. The murderers left the train at Jollarpett without having excited any suspicions. But the murdered man had telegraped to his friends at Bangalore that he was coming, and they were on the platform to receive him. On the arrival of the train at the station the man was found to be dead. As there were appearances of foul play, information was at once given to the police who succeeded in arresting the two men at Jollarpett with their ill-gotten spoils.

IF there were only a local millionaire at Negapatam like Lord Dudley—who made a bet of £10,000 sterling on the recent walking match in London, and won it—to lay heavy stakes about the Russian vessel now at Negapatam reaching a Russian port, the town which is the headquarters of the South Indian Railway, two hundred miles below Madras, might be an exciting place to live in for a while. A correspondent of the Madras Times says:—"You will be interested to know that there is a large Russian merchantman in the Negapatam Roads. She is painted wholly white, and looks anything but warlike, yet if her Captain does not take care he will fall a victim to the blind fury of war on his homeward passage, for a Turkish or Egyptian ship of superior force will not hesitate to stain those whited sides of a stately craft with the crimson tide now flowing in the veins of the pale-faced Russian crew." We should fancy that the wiser course for Captain Popoffskeisky—or whatever his name may be—to adopt, would be to charter his vessel for business between Indian ports, and avoid European waters for a while.

COLONEL JEBB, of the 67th Regiment, has a very good chance of being Brigadier General Stewart's successor in the Adjutant General-ship of the Madras Army. The Colonel (says the Mail) has recently qualified himself in Hindustani, which not only looks as though he was capable of doing work of an uninviting character, but as if he expected some reward for his self-imposed labour. His behaviour in Burmah, too, when sent to the interior to meet the Grosvenor expedition, pointed him out as a man of resource in whom confidence might be placed. These are the chief reasons that induce us to think Colonel Jebb is the coming man. It is known, however, that Colonel Travers, of the Madras Army and now in charge of the Indian Department at the Horse Guards, is warmly recommended for the post, by no less an authority than the Field Marshal the Commander-in-Chief; and Colonel Travers would doubtless get the appointment, but for the difficulty that would arise at Head-Quarters in Madras. With Colonel Travers in the appointment, we should have Adjutant General, Deputy Adjutant General, and Assistant Adjutant General, all officers of the local army; the Quarter Master General and his Deputy are also local officers; and thus the Queen's troops would not be represented to the usual extent on the Head Quarter's staff. This circumstance will probably tell against Colonel Travers chance of promotion to a position which he is admirably fitted to occupy.

THE DOGS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—After reading the letters in your edition of this morning and in that of your contemporary which give the lie direct to Sir Frank Souter's military friend, I hope the Commissioner of Police will admit that it is as well to hear two sides of a story before issuing orders that are tantamount to a cruel and unwarrantable persecution. I for one am a victim of the Commissioner's threats; for, although it is the only really enjoyable walk in Bombay, I dare no longer stroll along the Kennedy Sea Face for fear of my dog being poisoned which would certainly, if it occurred, incline me strongly to poison some one else. Your correspondent, "A Good Watch Dogs," is somewhat egotistical, but would like the Esplanade, and, indeed, all Bombay to himself and other equestrians; his flinty-heart is insensible to the innocence of childhood and to the tender flirtations of youth; he objects to Parsees praying or playing, and, in fact, to any one using the roads he honours with his distinguished presence. I would suggest his carrying about with him a few poisoned buns and goodies which he could smilingly distribute among the obnoxious babes and children in his rides—a withering glance from his eye should soon dispose of the gushing couples who offend his sight, and a good long hunting whip used with dexterity would no doubt clear his path of the Parsees who walk or sit too near where he rides.

In any case I hope Sir Frank Souter will see the justice of rescinding his orders for the destruction of all dogs found on the Esplanade, and have the courage to do it.

A LOVER OF DOGS.

II.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—The number of letters that have appeared in the columns of your valuable journal on the dog question induced me to say a word on the subject. Nearly all of these letters appear to be either from careless owners of dogs or from people who simply wish to criticize the actions of the Commissioner of Police. It is very seldom that those injured by dogs care to bring forward their complaints. If the other side of the story were also told you would find as many, if not more, complaints against dogs. It seems to me that whenever the Commissioner issues the laudable order for destroying dogs, whoever happens to own a miserable dog, which he will call a pet, makes no scruple to come forward in style, through the columns of public journals with a philippic for the worthy Commissioner.

In supporting, therefore, the orders of the Commissioner, I will tell you how myself and family are injured by dogs, and beg to call the attention of Sir Frank and his officers to my case. I am living on the Victoria Road and have to go to office in the Fort every day. You know how important it is to have a quiet sleep in the night after the day's bother in the Fort; but the dogs will not let me have it. There are a number of dogs (of whose caste or creed I am ignorant) on this road, and they make a point of it to bark almost all night long, and I have often literally no sleep during the greater portion of the night, which consequently makes one feel so miserable. Is it not right that these dogs should be destroyed?

Let the dog, whoever chooses to keep a dog must take care of it, so that it may not pester others. Sic utere tuo ut alienum non lædas. If your dogs are your pets, treat them as such, and don't let them stray away; if they do, they must die. That being so, where is the line to be drawn? how is the distinction to be made? I am sure the Commissioner has no desire to deprive any one of his or her pets.

Let the Commissioner, therefore, destroy all the dogs his men can lay hold of—especially those on the Victoria Road—and let the owners of pet dogs, instead of rushing to the columns of a journal, take care of their pets, and prevent them from getting astray.

BOMBAY.

CHANGE OF DAYS OF SAILING.—Owing to monsoon arrangements, the Coast and Calcutta steamers of the B. I. S. N. Company will, until further notice, leave Bombay on Thursday afternoon instead of Saturday as at present.

SEA-SORTING OF LETTERS.—The Secretary of the Bengal Chamber of Commerce has communicated with the Post Master of Bengal on the subject of the new arrangements for sea-sorting of letters, when the latter official said in reply that he thought "it extremely unlikely that any such delay as that supposed will occur. I have asked the Director-General to let me know what is the truth, and shall again address you on hearing from him."

CRIMINAL BREACH OF TRUST.—On Saturday, at the Girgaum Police Court, a Mahomedan, named Rahimkhan Ebrahimkhan, was sentenced to three months' hard labour in the Common Jail, on being convicted by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee of criminal breach of trust in respect of one rupee belonging to Anne Angelina. It appears on the evening previous, the prosecutrix went to the Tardeo Road railway station, to proceed by the mail train for Surat, and while at the station prisoner offered to procure a third class ticket for Surat at the ticket office on behalf of the prosecutrix, for which purpose she gave him Rs. 3. Prisoner returned from the ticket office and demanded 12 annas more from the prosecutrix to pay for the ticket, and on declining his word, asked prisoner to return the Rs. 3, on which the prisoner returned only Rs. 2, and was walking off with the other rupee at a quick pace, but information was at once given to the police, when the prisoner was pursued and arrested. On searching his person, a rupee was found in the prisoner's boot. At first the prisoner denied having any such sum about his person.

THE P. AND O. S. PERA.—The following address was presented to Captain Hyde by the passengers in the Pera, on her recent homeward voyage from Bombay. We can testify, from personal experience, to the excellence of the management on board the Pera:—

S. S. PERA, 14th April 1877.

DEAR CAPTAIN HYDE,—Our very pleasant journey from Bombay being nearly over, we wish to express to you and to your officers on the Pera, our appreciation of the care and attention we have received during the voyage. The quiet and orderly manner in which every thing connected with the management of the ship has been conducted, has added in no small degree to our comfort, and the table has been better than we have seen in any ship. This we feel is owing to the attention you give to this very important department.—With all good wishes, we are yours very truly,

Ralph Young, Col. R. E.; Marion Spencer, F. G. C. Hobart, Major 9th Regiment; C. P. Cooper, Senior Magistrate, Bombay: J. Allardyce, Colonel; E. Dalgleish, E. R. Cargill, Charles Hunter Christian; A. B. Sutherland; G. O. Clark, B.C.S.; Walter Scobie, Edgar Vincent, C. T. Mulle, H. Spencer, H. S. Butcher, J. May, W. Redgrave, W. Halford, L. Young, J. M. Inglis, M. Cargill, F. T. Young, and H. Prince.

A GEOLOGICAL AND MINERALOGICAL EXCURSION.—We have already called attention to Mr. Moreshwur's excellent "Notes of a Tour," which tour he undertook for the purpose of inspecting the mineral resources of the west coast of Kattywar. We are now glad to see that Native Opinion is seconding the efforts of Mr. Moreshwur to get the native States to move in organizing a scientific survey of all Kattywar. That paper says, "Geology and Mineralogy are Mr. Moreshwar's specialty, and we feel confident that he would be only too willing to assist our Kattywar chiefs, if they would project and carry out geological surveys of their States. No doubt these States will have to undergo some expenditure in the beginning, but we say that the knowledge secured by these surveys, if turned to a practical use, will more than repay the expenditure incurred. It is possible that many of the States in Kattywar may be discovered to be rich in iron, coal, and other minerals; and if they be turned to some account, which can only be done, under present circumstances, by a partial employment of foreign skilled labour until our own people are trained to it, Kattywar, as it has a large seaboard and some large harbours, must become prosperous. As a commercial people, Kattywarees are keen and intelligent, and if this trait of character be developed by training them to mechanical arts and manufactures, they may attain to a great commercial prosperity."

GOANESE WOLVES.—A correspondent writes to the Catholic Examiner in the following bitter terms of the Goanese priests:—"Kooliceneal, 1st May: The mission of Madura has to mourn over the decease of the Rev. F. Sylvamos Laurent, one of the most hard working missionaries. He was called to his eternal reward the 27th of last month, at Manapade on the fishery coast. He was born in Evreche-Comte in 1817. He entered the Society of Jesus in 1847, and two years later was sent to the mission of Madura where he has indefatigably worked and fought for nearly 70 years, composed chiefly of paravas or fishermen. But it is sad to have to say that his exertions were mostly employed in checking the continual encroachments of the Goanese priests. For, not only before the conclusion of the Concordata, but even after that event, the Goanese priests on the fishery coast have been incessantly, secretly, and openly plotting and fighting against the jurisdiction of the Vicar Apostolic. The Rev. F. Laurent was obliged to be always on the qui vive, and, as it were, with arms in hand to protect his flock; and it is but just to say, that we owe to his unremitting watchfulness and energy that the large congregation of Manapode and Periataley has been preserved from the teeth of wolves concealed under a sheep skin. Now, we hope, the valiant soldier of Christ is enjoying the undisturbed and eternal peace of heaven.—We devoutly hope he is, after 70 years' conflict with "wolves" on earth. How tenderly these Christians love one another!

TREATMENT OF THE NATIVES.—The Bombay Guardian says, A Mr. Steelki, of Darjeeling, was charged the other day with assaulting and so bringing about the death of a native sailor in his wife's employ. We earnestly wish Europeans in this country, bearing the name of Christ, and professing to be His followers, would apply themselves to carry out in their intercourse with natives the divine precept, "Ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening," and would seek to show "all meekness unto all men." Unfortunately, as a rule, they imagine that they have every right to do what they please with the natives, and hence act often abitrarily and even brutally towards them. One of the principal obstacles in the way of the evangelization of India is the fearful misrepresentation given to Christ's character and teachings by the ungodly lives and outrageous conduct of many Europeans in this land, and these are the very ones who, when questioned on the subject of missions, pronounce all mission work in India as an absolute failure, decry it as so much labour spent in vain, and give it as their settled opinion that the best thing the missionaries can do, is to pack up and return home. It would be far better if such people, instead of wasting their time in prating about matters they are entirely incompetent to form an opinion upon, were to spend their time and giving vent to opinions which are utterly valueless, studied to cultivate the Spirit of Jesus Christ, and by holy consistent lives rendered attractive the religion they profess, to their heathen neighbour. This would prove one effective way of facilitating and furthering the spread of our Lord's kingdom amongst them.

EXECUTION AT BARODA.—A correspondent writes:—"This morning (May 12,) a young Sindee suffered the extreme penalty of the law on the general parade ground. It would appear that the murderer was employed by a jemadar, a relative of a Sindee nobleman, and a favourite member of the jemadar's family; unfortunately happened to be enamared by the attentions of the culprit, who continued his intrigues for a long time. One day, however, the jemadar came to know of the disgraceful criminal proceedings of his servant, and the latter was consequently handled very severely by the jemadar. The culprit, smarting under the sting of the thrashing he had received, left for before the flame of his heart, resolved to make short work of his master on the first opportunity. One day the jemadar had to return from a village, and the culprit came to know of the road the jemadar would return; here he laid in ambush with a gun, and when his victim came about fifty yards from him he discharged his gun, which immediately took fatal effect. The mare which the jemadar was riding ran off to the stables riderless, with stains of blood about her, which of course roused suspicions of a foul deed having been committed. The hoof prints of the mare were traced to where the corpse felt. After the murder, the culprit decamped to Hyderabad, Deccan, and remained there more than one year, and from thence he went to Joudhpore. The family of the deceased, however, had secured the services of spies to trace his whereabouts, and after many efforts he was discovered in the latter State and removed to Baroda, where he was lately tried and condemned. His mother and sister came to see him and wept bitterly, but the fellow repeatedly endeavoured to pacify them by saying that he would inherit the reward for his crime in store for him and for all courageous people like him. A Moulvie was in attendance from early morning, and administered to him the rites of the Mahomedan religion.

SALVAGE MONEY.—The Bombay Government addressed the Government of India and requested its orders, whether any deduction should be made from salvage money granted to a ship belonging to Government on account of stores expended by her in rendering assistance to a private ship in distress. The Government of India, we learn, have decided that, in questions of salvage, Indian Government ships are to be considered more as private vessels entitled to actual expenses incurred, in addition to the salvage claimed, but such expenses abroad be specially shown and awarded, failing which, the amount of salvage allowed must be treated as a personal award to the officers and crew for the risk, work, and labour involved, and from such sum no deductions should be made. The Government of India have also considered it but just that officers and men should receive salvage for services rendered, not merely in regard to the exact quantum of service performed in each particular case, but on account of the general interest of the navigation and commerce of the country, which are greatly protected by exercise of this nature. We are told that the Government of India, in disposing of this important question, have thought it necessary to impose the most careful restrictions and limits to guard against officers neglecting legitimate work for the sake of salvage, and perhaps risking the public property for their own benefit and the restriction of private salvage, which cannot be expected to compete with Government. The Government of India seem to think it would be advisable that Indian Government vessels should never be allowed to engage in salvage operations, when private ships or appliances are available, merely to save expense to any particular person, as such course would tend to interfere with mercantile enterprize. The Government of India have also strictly enjoined that all claims for salvage should not be allowed, without their sanction, and, when submitting such cases for sanction, it should be stated whether the amount of expenses incurred, if any, has been recovered.

THE POPE.—To-morrow Pope Pius IX. enters on the 86th year of his life, and his loving children all the world over will, with their first thoughts of thanks to Him who gives the new day to them and to the Pope alike, congratulate the Father of Christendom and wish him many happy returns of his birthday anniversary. May the longevity for which the members of the Mastai family have been remarkable for some generations past, become still more remarkable than ever in this Father of the Faithful, in the same degree as the family name, which has been long illustrious, will have gained a lustre that can never die, from the glory given to it by him who has changed it for so many years into the grand Pius IX.—By Catholic J...

HORROR REPENTANCE.—The Armenian Patriarch Kupelian, who is disturbing the Catholic Armenian Church, has lately been dangerously ill, from a cancer in the stomach, it is said. Some Catholics went to visit him, trying to turn him to repentance. He accuses the apostate Antonine monks of being of the worst sort of heretics, and as sure to die impenitent. As for himself, he says, he would much prefer to come round with all his band and then go back again to Diarbekir, his native country. May God's grace touch his heart and enlighten his mind!—Id. [Even the agonies of cancer in the stomach have not softened so elevated an ecclesiastic as a Patriarch to deal mercifully with so-called heretics.

THE DEPOSED GUICOWAR.—Bhow Sindiah having been the favourite Minister of Khunderao, he was, immediately on the accession of Mulharao, consigned to prison and all his property confiscated. The unfortunate man was clothed in the dress of a sweeper, and was made to sweep the streets of Baroda. It is said that on one occasion, while the fallen Minister was thus employed, he demanded a little drinking water. Forthwith the Maharajah, who was of course enjoying Bhow Sindiah's degradation from a window of a palace, ordered that the foul water of the drains should be given him, and no other. It is easy to comprehend the worst forms of cruelty, but it is impossible to understand by what perversion of the mind one man could ill-treat another man in this fashion. And this is the man whom thirty-five thousand people of Baroda wish to see restored to power!—Indian Spectator.

MR. ALFRED EDGINTON.—The justly beloved and respected Deputy Commissioner of the Bombay Police force, went home by the mail steamer of Monday last. It falls to the lot of very few officers in the uncovenanted and subordinate ranks of the services to leave Indian shores with such expressions of affectionate regard and esteem on the part of the native public as have fallen to the share of the retired Deputy Commissioner. We are glad that the native public of Bombay have not allowed a worthy officer to depart without expressing their gratitude to him and in a substantial form. But this affair has shown how the native community of Bombay is divided at the present moment and rendered incapable of any concerted action, in which only lies its strength of doing good to the mass of the people here and in the mofussil whose representatives they are. Not to speak of divisions among ourselves, some of our so-called leaders are not prone to stir unless they see the prospect of putting themselves into the fore-ground at an opportune moment. To this selfish prompting, moral degradation, want of manliness, and a truer regard for the good of the people or call it what you will, is in a great measure ascribable to the failure of a public meeting in Bombay for the assistance of the famine-stricken in the Deccan. When the addresses to Mr. Edginton on Municipal discussion for providing a suitable successor to him are closely scanned, it is made apparent how inconsistently some of the gentlemen who have given the address have behaved. Some of those who adored Mr. Edginton were the very persons who voted for Sir Frank Souter's motion.—Native Opinion.

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.—In noticing the war news the Pioneer remarks, "By the way, it is only fair to say that "Reuter's telegrams for the last fortnight have been intelligible, fairly abundant, and compiled with care, so as to give us glimpses of "the whole scene." As we have been among those who have loudly complained when Reuter's messages were very bald, we are glad to endorse what our contemporary has said, and bear testimony to the excellence of the war telegrams. At the same time our readers ought to be made aware of the fact that Indian newspaper proprietors are now paying the news-purveyor an additional sum monthly for the extra service.—Madras Times.

THE EXPECTED EXPEDITION.—We are informed that full and detailed instructions have come from the Home Government to the Government of India to send a force from this country to occupy Egypt in the event of certain contingencies arising. What those contingencies are it is not difficult to guess, and judging from Mr. Secretary Cross' speech in the House of Commons the other night we may be nearer to them than is generally imagined. Cyprus and Egypt would doubtless be made up from each of the presidencies, and it is not unlikely that Sir Neville Chamberlain would be offered the command of the expedition.—Madras Mail.

WEAKNESS OF THE INDIAN ARMY.

TO-DAY the Indian army—an army said to be always in the field—has a less proportion of field guns to strength than any organised force in existence. We believe that at the present moment the Government could not put two hundred and fifty guns into the field throughout the whole of India. It is almost useless now for the Government here to call upon England for assistance. It should in the first place organise more local batteries, especially of mountain guns, and should indeed look upon England for men to bring existing English batteries up to a proper war strength. What is true of the artillery is true also of the army generally. Madras has to watch Burmah and oppress Baldarabad with a force so small that any excitement in either quarter would compel the Government to reduce the Punjab army—an army, that is, which has not only exceedingly heavy present garrison duties, but possibilities which would tax its energies were it twice its actual strength. Bombay has to watch Central India and Rajputana, and could not safely spare a man for Egypt or the Persian Gulf. The Government of India's military strength is shut up in the Punjab, and has been so pared, so fleeced down, so clipped, so minimized that any inward trouble would be frightful enhanced, while any outward action is almost next to impossible, because it could only be undertaken by absolutely denuding the country o troops. The strength of a military machine is not so much the strength of its active force or fleet limit, but the warlike efficiency of its reserves; yet India presents us with the paradox of an immense military Empire madly bent upon multiplying reductions, and altogether without reserves of any kind. Does the Government, we wonder, imagine that improvised regiments, as in the mutiny, could be led successfully against any foe but sepahis? Short time indeed is given the Government to retrieve its errors—errors which have left it without junior officers, with its best officers devoid of military training, with an army below its home needs at a time when its military

APOLLINARIS
PURE, NATURAL, MINERAL
EFFERVESCING WATER
FROM THE APOLLINARIS BRUNNEN. WATER.

APOLLINARIS WATER.—THE QUEEN OF TABLE WATERS.—"A great boon to all, but especially suited by its absolute purity and mild alkalinity to ward off the most fatal diseases of TROPICAL CLIMATES."—British Medical Journal.

"Possesses organic purity in the highest degree, wholly charged with its own Natural Gas. The production of the spring is equivalent to 40,000,000 of quart bottles per annum."—J. A. WANKLYN, V. Pres. of the Society of Public Analysts, &c., &c.

APOLLINARIS WATER.—"FAR SUPERIOR TO ORDINARY MANUFACTURED AERATED WATERS."—Medical Times.

APOLLINARIS WATER.—"The favoured drink of the favoured classes. The fashion in the Clubs, and universally recommended as a pure, refreshing drinking water by the Medical Profession. Especially suited moreover for Tropical Climates."—London Medical Record.

"APOLLINARIS WATER has rapidly attained a great and well-deserved popularity in England. Particularly valuable to Indians having or fearing a touch of liver or disordered digestion."—Practitioner.

APOLLINARIS WATER.—Inspector General Macpherson M.D., late H. M. Indian Army, author of "Baths and Wells," &c., writes: "The advantage of Apollinaris Water is THE CERTAINTY OF ITS PURITY. In India it is difficult even with every care to obtain water for the manufacture of Soda Water that is free from impurities. THE APOLLINARIS WATER OUGHT TO BE A GREAT BOON TO INDIA."

Professor Macnamara, late Prof. University of Calcutta, &c., writes: "Soda Water in India is frequently polluted with drainage and organic impurities, which are the direct cause of cholera, typhus and dysentery. Apollinaris is absolutely pure. I STRONGLY ADVISE INDIAN RESIDENTS TO DRINK IT. IT IS FAR MORE REFRESHING AND WHOLESOME THAN SODA WATER."

Consumers can now be supplied with Apollinaris Water in Soda Water Bottles which can readily be sold when empty. They are cautioned to see that Bottles have SMITH, BILLINGTON & Co.'s name on the Label, otherwise they may purchase water not properly bottled for export.
